sovaSage Named a Top 10 Sleep Therapy Solution Provider for 2026

Recognition highlights SovaSage's leadership in AI-powered, data-driven patient management and adherence innovation

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania — March 23, 2026— sovaSage, a leader in AI-powered sleep therapy management, has been named one of the Top 10 Sleep Therapy Solution Providers for 2026 by Healthcare Business Outlook.

This recognition underscores sovaSage's role in transforming how sleep therapy is delivered, combining advanced analytics, behavioral science, and human-centered design to improve patient outcomes and operational efficiency across the care continuum.

As sleep care evolves from device delivery to longitudinal patient management, sovaSage is helping providers, health systems, and partners move beyond fragmented workflows toward a more connected, insight-driven model.

"At sovaSage, we believe better outcomes come from better insight and proactive response," said William Kaigler, Co-Founder and CEO. "This recognition validates the work we are doing to help providers deliver more personalized care, reduce guesswork, and drive long-term adherence for patients with sleep apnea."

sovaSage's platform supports the entire patient journey, from initial setup through ongoing adherence management:

- sovaFit™ enables AI-guided mask fitting to improve first-fit success
- sovaStart™ streamlines PAP setup with structured, patient-centered onboarding
- sovaGuide™ delivers continuous monitoring, coaching, and intervention insights

Together, these solutions empower providers with real-time visibility into patient progress, enabling faster intervention, improved compliance, and stronger referral relationships.

The Healthcare Business Outlook selection process evaluates companies based on innovation, clinical impact, operational value, and ability to address emerging challenges in healthcare delivery.

As highlighted in the publication, the future of sleep therapy is shifting toward personalized, data-informed care models that integrate seamlessly into everyday life. sovaSage is at the forefront of this transformation. <https://healthcarebusinessoutlook.com/sovasage/>
